

Saturday 1st

Pray for our political leaders in Westminster. Pray for wisdom and that they will seek God's guidance as they make important decisions about Brexit.

Sunday 2nd

Pray for all who attend the Communion Services today Jesus is Lord, give thanks that we can worship Him in freedom.

Monday 3rd

Pray for the General Assembly tonight as they formally elect Rev William Henry as Moderator for 2019/2020

Tuesday 4th

As Ramadan comes to a close pray for Christians from a Muslim background who may feel threatened or excluded by their families.

Wednesday 5th

Pray for all who will be attending meetings, debates and voting this week of our General Assembly. Pray that all that takes place will glorify God.

Thursday 6th

Pray for single parent families who struggle to take decisions on their own and help us to be supportive to anyone we know in this situation.

Friday 7th

Pray for all sitting important exams. Pray that they will do their best and leave the rest in God's hands.

Saturday 8th

Give thanks for all the leaders working with our young people. Pray that they will know God's blessing as they serve Him

Sunday 9th

Pray for those in our congregation who have been bereaved. Remember those who attended church Sunday by Sunday with their spouse and now find it difficult to come alone. Commend them to God's loving care and pray that we will show understanding and compassion to those we know.

Monday 10th

Pray for all members of Session meeting tonight. Pray for wisdom and guidance from the Holy Spirit in all discussions and decision making.

Tuesday 11th

Pray that more will be done to support those suffering from mental problems and especially those who feel suicidal.

Wednesday 12th

Pray for the politicians at Stormont. Pray that God will bring His light and truth into the discussions taking place and that unity will replace division.

Thursday 13th

Pray for those you know who are waiting for hospital test results. Pray for them by name, lifting each one up to the Lord..

Friday 14th

Continue to give thanks for our senior members. Remember those who are becoming frail and those who are lonely.

Saturday 15th

Give thanks that in an increasingly secular world we have a number of couples in Joymount this year choosing Christian Marriage.

Sunday 16th

Thank God for fathers and pray for all men involved in the responsibility of bringing up their children. Remember too those separated from their children.

Monday 17th

Prayer is such an important part of Christian Life, Pray that more members of the congregation will feel able to come along to the Saturday and Sunday Prayer Meetings.

Tuesday 18th

Pray for those in our congregation, who are sick, especially those with long term debilitating illnesses. Remember their families and carers and as you pray ask for wisdom to understand their needs.

Wednesday 19th

Pray for our witness to our neighbours, that we may be seen to be caring, considerate and honest in all our ways and that they may see Jesus in us in spite of our failings.

Thursday 20th

Give thanks for all involved in the running of the Thursday Sale and Open Church for quiet reflection and prayer.. Pray for the regulars who visit each week and pray that as the summer months arrive that visitors will feel welcome.

Friday 21st

Remember our Joymount ministry team in all their various tasks and responsibilities. Pray that they will know the presence and inspiration of the Holy Spirit.

Saturday 22nd

Pray that God will help us to forgive and love each other as He forgives and loves us.

Sunday 23rd

Jesus is Lord, give thanks that we can worship Him in freedom.

Monday 24th

Give thanks for the children and young people who come to Joymount Church. Pray that they and all children may know a loving and safe childhood

Tuesday 25th

Pray that in all the marches and celebrations being planned for over the summer, there may be respect for our neighbours and for all that is good in our heritage

Wednesday 26th

Give thanks for the work of Open Doors and pray for safety for those who are often in dangerous situations whilst sharing the Gospel.

Thursday 27th

Pray for families in difficulty, tensions between partners, or those who find it difficult to be parents of children with special needs.

Friday 28th

As many of our regular activities wind down give thanks for all who have given so much during the year and pray that they will be refreshed over the summer.

Saturday 29th

As you pray in your homes take time to give thanks for your homes and pray for all those who have no place to call home.

Sunday 30th

As schools and colleges close for the summer pray for the young people in our community that they may have the strength of character not to be drawn into unfavourable company.

Joymount
Presbyterian Church

Prayer Diary
June 2019