

Tuesday 1st

Pray for those who usually meet on Tuesday morning in Robinsons Row and for all who just miss seeing people at church.

Wednesday 2nd

Remember in prayer children and teachers as schools try to get back to some kind of normality.

Thursday 3rd

Give thanks that Laszlo, Richard and Catherine have now returned to work from Furlough.

Friday 4th

Pray for all who are addicted to alcohol, drugs or gambling. Pray for those who live with them and for those who try to help.

Saturday 5th

Pray for all those in Government at this time of great challenge. Pray that they will know the need for wisdom greater than their own and that they will seek God's help and guidance.

Sunday 6th

Give thanks for the Sunday Services on YouTube, Facebook and telephone. Give thanks for the number of people who watch and listen to them including a number from overseas

Monday 7th

Pray for all who would usually be at Tots&Co this morning.

Tuesday 8th

Pray for all who have had tests and treatments postponed because of Covid. Pray for those who are responsible for getting things going again.

Wednesday 9th

Pray for those who have lost their jobs or businesses because of the lockdown. Pray that God will help them to make ends meet and that they will get the help they need.

Thursday 10th

Pray for our Presbyterian Church family both here and overseas as we all are affected by the Covid-19 pandemic

Friday 11th

Continue to pray that God will protect all those working on the front line, all NHS staff, care workers, teachers, postal workers, delivery services, those working in shops and all other key workers.

Saturday 12th

Pray for disadvantaged communities, asking God to help us all to do what we can to support and enable those most in need.

Sunday 13th

Give thanks for increased medical and scientific understanding of coronavirus, asking God for continued progress in finding ways to combat its effects.

Monday 14th

Pray for members of Session at their meeting tonight. Pray for wisdom in making decisions and give thanks that we are able to use Zoom to have our meeting from the safety of our homes.

Tuesday 15th

Pray for the global search for a vaccine, asking God for rapid progress and a safe and successful outcome.

Wednesday 16th

Pray for those who feel tempted to disregard the guidelines being given by the Government. Pray that they will think about how their behaviour can affect others.

Thursday 17th

Give thanks for all those from churches and the community who are pulling together to provide food parcels and meals to the elderly and vulnerable

Friday 18th

Give thanks for those who have recovered from the Corona virus and that the number of fatalities is reducing.

Saturday 19th

Pray for those countries with the fewest resources to fight Covid-19 and especially for all in refugee camps.

Sunday 20th

Pray for our service this morning. Continue to give thanks for the ways we can follow the service in our own homes.

Monday 21st

Pray for wisdom for the Church Gathering Team as they make decisions about opening church again and all that it entails.

Tuesday 22nd

Pray for wisdom for all those still involved in negotiations regarding the future of our nation after leaving the EU.

Wednesday 23rd

Pray for those who have lost loved ones through Coronavirus, asking that God would be their comfort and strength as they grieve

Thursday 24th

Pray for those who have lost loved ones during lockdown and feel they were unable to mark their passing adequately due to restrictions on funeral services

Friday 25th

Pray for families brought to breaking point by the stresses of being together for too long. Also remember children, parents and volunteers at Child Contact Centre.

Saturday 26th

Pray for the couples planning to marry in our church especially those who have had to postpone a number of times.

Sunday 27th

Pray for all the vulnerable, especially those in Nursing Homes. Pray also for the staff, many of whom are living in the homes to prevent taking infection to their families.

Monday 28th

Pray that in these difficult times the hearts and minds of many will look to God and he will come to meet them like the father of the Prodigal Son.

Tuesday 29th

Pray for those who are having to work from home and care for their children. Pray that employers will be sympathetic to their situation.

Wednesday 30th

Pray for the leaders of all our organisations as they wait for guidance as to when and how they will start up again.

Joymount
Presbyterian Church

Prayer Diary
September 2020